

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

Consultancy

Case study: Indonesia. Inquiring into Financial Sector Responses to TF-CSEA (November 2025 - January 2026)

ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

ECPAT International is a global network of organisations working together for the elimination of the sexual exploitation of children (SEC) in all its manifestations i.e., exploitation of children in prostitution, online child sexual exploitation, sale and trafficking of children for sexual purposes, sexual exploitation of children in travel and tourism and some forms of child, early and forced marriage. The ECPAT Network currently consists of 142 member organisations working at national and local levels in 115 countries.

The ECPAT International Secretariat coordinates the global work of the organisation and is based in Bangkok, Thailand. The Secretariat designs and implements global and regional level programmes, and undertakes programming, advocacy and research and facilitates a range of network initiatives.

BACKGROUND OF THE PROJECT

ECPAT International is working on a series of case studies documenting and analysing how financial-sector mechanisms to detect, prevent and respond to trafficking of children and child sexual exploitation and abuse (TF-CSEA) emerge and function across diverse regulatory and institutional environments. The case studies will cover several countries and regions to allow cross-case comparison while reflecting local context. This request for consultancy refers to the case study for Indonesia.

CONSULTANCY OBJECTIVES

ECPAT International is seeking a consultant to analyse context, entry points, mechanisms (enablers and challenges, outcomes and lessons learned from the experience of various actors – from governments, business and CSOs – addressing this issue in Indonesia. The selected consultant/s will work closely with ECPAT International based on a guidance that will inform the development of the case studies in other countries, to ensure that these are comparable.

EXPECTED OUTPUTS

The consultancy will result in a case study for Indonesia. The consultant will be responsible for data collection and analysis in Indonesian (Bahasa Indonesia) and English, including semi-structural interviews with 6-8 stakeholders, documents review, process mapping, and a validation focus group with partners in Indonesia to confirm accuracy of the findings and recommendations.

TIMELINE

The assignment will be carried out between November 2025 and January 2026. It is estimated that this work will take 15 working days. A detailed plan and timeline will be defined and agreed with the selected consultant/s at the start of the assignment.

Key milestones include: Detailed workplan, data collection, review and feedback on the draft case study and final case study delivery.

CONSULTANT'S PROFILE

- Proven experience in case studies, and reports development.
- Excellent writing, communication, and facilitation skills in Indonesian (Bahasa Indonesia) and English.
- Knowledge and expertise in child protection, in particular in relation to financial institutions.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- This is a home-based position using own equipment and communication tools.
- The consultants should be available for online calls in Asia time zone.
- The case study will be delivered in English (the collection of data and analysis of the source materials will be done in Indonesian Bahasa Indonesia and English).
- The Consultants are expected to act at all times in a manner consistent with the values of ECPAT International and in compliance with the organisation's policies and procedures including Child Safeguarding Policy and the Code of Conduct.

OUR COMMITMENT

- As ECPAT's International Secretariat we recognise that our strength lies in the diversity of the people who make up our global network, staff, volunteers and consultants. We are committed to being an inclusive workplace where people of all backgrounds and cultures can thrive and be themselves. This means we will challenge ourselves to do better and to continue learning, to create and maintain a working environment steeped in respect, tolerance, safety, and where all parties are valued equally.
- As a child-focused organisation, ECPAT has a strong commitment to child safeguarding and rigorous
- procedures, and the successful candidate will be required to sign our 2 codes of conduct.

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST:

Please submit an email to vacancy@ecpat.org, with the subject line: Consultant's name/company name and "Case study: Indonesia". Kindly include the following documents:

1. A proposal with examples of your previous similar work.
2. Financial proposal for the development of the case study, indicating the daily rate in USD.

Due to the high volume of applications, we receive, we are not able to respond to every application. If you have not heard back from us within 3 weeks from the deadline, it means that your application has not been successful.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE

All proposals must be submitted by 15th November 2025