Communications and multimedia support for the Global Alliance for the Protection of Boys from Sexual Violence (GAPB) – Based in Manila

September 2026

Organisational context

ECPAT International is a global network of organisations working together for the elimination of the sexual exploitation of children (SEC) in all its manifestations i.e., exploitation of children in prostitution, online child sexual exploitation, sale and trafficking of children for sexual purposes, sexual exploitation of children in travel and tourism and some forms of child, early and forced marriage. The ECPAT Network currently consists of 141 member organisations working at national and local levels in 113 countries.

The ECPAT International Secretariat coordinates the global work of the organisation and is based in Bangkok, Thailand. The Secretariat designs and implements global and regional level programmes, and undertakes programming, advocacy and research and facilitates a range of network initiatives.

Context of the consultancy

The Global Alliance for the Protection of Boys from Sexual Violence \(GAPB\), convened by ECPAT International, together with members and partners, will hold a satellite event (under the lead of the GAPB Steering Committee member Family for Every Child) during the Global Inter-Ministerial Conference on Ending Violence Against Children in Manila, Philippines, in November 2026. The satellite event will bring together representatives from governments, civil society organisations, practitioners and other stakeholders to discuss the protection of boys from sexual violence and strengthen attention to boys within broader efforts to prevent and respond to violence against children.

To support the visibility of the event and extend its reach beyond participants attending in person, ECPAT International and the GAPB are seeking a Manila-based communications and multimedia professional, consultant or small production team to provide photo and video coverage and short-form social media content during and immediately after the event. The assignment should help document the event itself while also capturing the perspectives of participants and speakers and creating accessible communications materials that can be used by the GAPB, ECPAT International and participating organisations to promote key advocacy and policy messages emerging from the discussion.

Objectives of the assignment

The overall objective of the consultancy is to develop a package of multimedia content documenting and promoting the GAPB satellite event.

The content should:

- Communicate the purpose and key messages of the satellite event to audiences beyond the conference;
- Document participation and engagement during the event;
- Capture short interviews/reflections from speakers, panellists and participants;
- Provide GAPB partners with professional visual materials that can be used across social media, websites, newsletters and other communications channels.

Key deliverables

The consultant will provide multimedia communications materials including:

- 4-5 edited video interviews with selected speakers, panellists and participants, around 60-90 seconds each (subtitles, minimal graphics, and background music included);
- Edited B-roll footage capturing key moments of the 2.5-hour satellite event, and other relevant parts of the conference;
- Around 40-50 combined photos from the satellite event, the general conference, and any other relevant GAPB engagements;
- All raw materials produced during the assignment, including original video footage, interview recordings, B-roll, audio files and high-resolution photographs.

Methodology

The consultant will work in close collaboration with ECPAT International's Gender and Child Protection team and Communications team, as well as other GAPB members involved in the satellite event.

The assignment will include one preparatory briefing, development of a simple content plan, on-site coverage of the event and post-production of the agreed multimedia materials.

ECPAT International and the GAPB will provide the event agenda, key messages, branding materials and guidance on priority speakers and interviewees.

Given the sensitive subject matter of the event, all content should be produced in line with ethical communications, informed consent and child safeguarding principles.

Consultant profile

The consultant needs to have:

- Demonstrated professional experience in event photography and videography;
- Experience producing short-form video and multimedia content for social media and digital communications;
- Experience filming and editing short interviews;
- Ability to work effectively in a live event environment;
- Access to their own professional photography, video and audio equipment;
- Ability to work in English;
- Demonstrated ability to take initiative and work independently and within the established deadline;
- High ethical standards.

Timeline

The consultancy will take place in November 2026, in connection with the Global Inter-Ministerial Conference on Ending Violence Against Children in Manila, the Philippines. The assignment is expected to require approximately 05 working days, including preparation, on-site event coverage and post-production – within the period from 9 November 2026 to 27 November 2026.

An initial selection of photographs content should be shared shortly after the event. Final materials should be delivered within approximately 5 working days following the event, according to an agreed timeline.

Additional Information

This is a Manila-based assignment and the consultant will use their own professional photography, video, audio and editing equipment.

The maximum budget available for this assignment is USD 2,000, inclusive of professional fees, equipment, local transportation, editing, post-production, applicable taxes and any other costs required to complete the assignment.

Our Commitments

As ECPAT's International Secretariat we recognise that our strength lies in the diversity of the people who make up our global network, staff, volunteers and consultants. We are committed to being an inclusive workplace where people of all backgrounds and cultures can strive and be themselves. This means we will challenge ourselves to do better and to continue learning, to create and maintain a working environment steeped in respect, tolerance, safety, and where all parties are valued equally.

As a child-focused organisation, ECPAT has a strong commitment to child safeguarding and rigorous procedures, and the successful candidate will be required to sign our 2 codes of conduct.
